

We are pleased to invite you to an International Webinar:

The Influence of Judicial Reform on Public Health and Human Rights

Professional experiences and discussion between representatives from four countries (Poland, Hungary, Turkey, Israel)

September 7th | 7 - 8:30 pm CET | 20:00-21:30 Israel time

Hosted by the Israeli Forum of Public Health, Law and Ethics.

The Legal reforms and Political Change have a major impact in various countries on democracy and Public Health.

This professional Webinar intends to share experiences from different perspectives show solidarity and attempts to protect future public health and human rights .

Moderators :

Adv. Jonathan Davies, SG for the World Association of Medical Law (WAML) and Governor for Israel

Professor Hagai Levine, Chairman, Israeli Association of Public Health Physicians

All times are according to Israeli time;

20:00 Opening remarks

Professor Nadav Davidovitch Executive Board Member and Chair, Public Health Emergencies Task Force, ASPHER

20:15-21:00

Professor (Law) Judit Sandor at the Central European University, Vienna, Budapest .

Governor for Hungary at the BoG at the WAML

Dr Janusz Roszkiewicz (PHD), The Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Warsaw

Professor Berna Arda, Faculty of Medicine, Ankara University. EC member for WAML and Governor for Turkey at the BoG

Dr. Adv. Shelly Kamin-Friedman, Expert in health law, Associate member, The Israeli Association of Public Health Physicians

21:00-21:20 Panel discussion and answers to questions from the public

21:20 Closing remarks

Click here for Registration

*The Webinar will be conducted in English